

LETTER OF REFERENCE

To whom it may concern:

It is with great pleasure that we write this letter of recommendation at the request of Ms. Annalena Feix. Ms. Annalena Feix, born 29.09.1994, was employed at our company as a Working Student within the software engineering team "Reporting & Analytics" during the time period 01.04.2022-31.01.2023.

The QPLIX GmbH develops and operates a cutting edge software as a service platform for asset management. Assets worth billions of dollars are managed on QPLIX on a daily basis worldwide. Customers and specialists appreciate the platform as a modern, safe, highly flexible and simple solution to manage complex wealth structures.

Ms. Feix predominantly focused on the following tasks and responsibilities during her tenure:

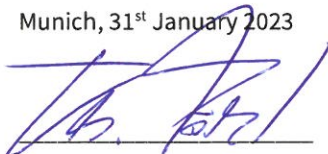

- Development of the QPLIX SaaS wealth management platform as part of a scrum team in front- and backend
- Development of various features in the broad context of financial reporting & analytics; specific examples include:
 - financial KPIs/metrics
 - improvements of PDF reporting
 - converter for internal data structures
 - extensions of existing Excel-exporter (Explain mode)
 - internationalization of UI.
- Development of various KPIs and APIs within our internal automation platform.

During her time at QPLIX, Ms. Feix has proven to be a very ambitious and intelligent individual. We found her skilled at putting her profound expertise to good use in finding optimal solutions. Ms. Feix demonstrated comprehensive, in-depth knowledge and understanding of her field at all times, frequently contributed fresh ideas and found optimal solutions. Ms. Feix consistently performed the above tasks autonomously to our fullest satisfaction. We appreciated her as a highly valuable member of our team.

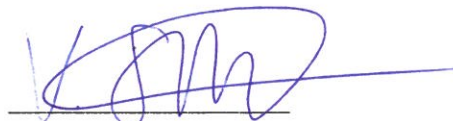

Due to her fast comprehension as well as her structured and systematic working approach she overviewed even highly complex processes and recognized the essentials quickly. Ms. Feix showed a high degree of enthusiasm and motivation. Acting goal-oriented, highly responsible and flexible at all times, she achieved outstanding results. Her distinct team skills as well as her friendly and balanced personality were highly appreciated by colleagues and management. Ms. Feix is leaving our company of her own accord. We regret her decision very much and wish her every success and all the best for her future professional and private life.

We genuinely thank Ms. Feix for the excellent work she has accomplished at QPLIX. We highly recommend her. Should you require any further clarification, please do not hesitate to contact us.
